

A family crest is used to share strengths or a motto about a family. Creating a family crest can help everyone identify the strengths of each person in the family and/or what makes your family special.

Draw, cut out words and images from magazines and/or use photos to express your family's motto, strengths, and/or traditions that make your family unique.